

FIND YOUR FREEDOM, LIVE YOUR PURPOSE

ABOUT MICHELE RICKETT

Michelle has been ministering to audiences around the globe for over 30 years. She is the founder and CEO of She Is Safe, an Atlanta-based international nonprofit that frees women and girls from slavery in the world's most high-risk communities, and equips them to build new lives.

Her own story is one of tragedy and triumph, and she has used it to help countless others find clarity and purpose. Michele's passion is to teach women how to break free from the bonds that enslave them so they can have a closer relationship to God and live out their calling.

FROM BROKEN TO BOLD

Every soul has a God-given desire for freedom and purpose. Using Isaiah 61 as her guide, Michele shares her own heart-breaking story of abuse with women not only to tell them that they aren't alone in their pain, but that they, too, can find freedom. Once they've heard this good news, she shows them how God can use the hard things in their life to minister to others.

SPEAKING TOPICS

- Can This Girl Be Saved (Michele's testimony)
- Prevent, Rescue and Restore: Proven Strategies to Address Human Trafficking
- Here I Am, Lord: For Freedom and Purpose
- Forgotten Girls: Stories of Hope and Courage

BOOKS

- Co-author of "Forgotten Girls," winner of the Reader's Choice Award for InterVarsity Press, voted as one of the Top 10 Must Read Books on Faith and Justice
- Co-author of "Daughters of Hope"

Michele encourages people to leverage their lives for the Gospel. I always walk away inspired when I hear her speak.
- Nia McRay, Conference Attendee

Michele encourages people to leverage their lives for the Gospel. I always walk away inspired when I hear her speak.
- Nia McRay, Conference Attendee

I love that Michele is able to tell you how the pain you've been through in your life can be redeemed by the work of God.
- Katie Lieprandt, Conference Attendee

For more information and to book Michele, please contact:
Patricia Colino, pcolino@sheissafe.org